

One of My Sons

by
Anna
Katharine
Green

read by Laura Victoria

LibriVox

Anna Katharine Green

A young girl frantically summons a gentleman walking by on the street to come in and help her grandfather. Arthur Outhwaite answers her cry for help only to find himself as the last person to see her grandfather alive and left with the admonishment from the dying man to deliver a letter to someone, and to that person only. Unfortunately, he dies before he can inform Outhwaite who that particular person is. Being in a house of strangers, Outhwaite is thrust into the mystery of not only finding this unknown person, but is also faced with the mysterious circumstances under which the child's grandfather died. (Summary by Laura Victoria)

Read by Laura Victoria. Total running time: 9:53:25

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.

Cover picture illustration from book (1901). Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author's life +70 yrs laws. Cover design by {your name}. This design is in the public domain.

One of My Sons

One of My Sons

Anna Katharine Green